Presents

Free Introductions to Psychosynthesis & The Professional Training Program

Join us for an introduction that will explore the powerful psychological principles of psychosynthesis, focusing on the integration of soul and personality. These sessions will allow participants who are interested in psychosynthesis training or therapy to gain experiential and theoretical understanding and to learn about the Center and its programs. These introductions provide an opportunity to experience psychosynthesis theory and techniques first hand. The Amherst sessions will be led by Dorothy Firman, Ed.D., director of the program, Brattleboro sessions led by Jon Schottland, MA, core faculty. Come to one or more!
